Please read these carefully and if you have any questions, please contact us to discuss them. In consideration of us accepting your pet, you agree to the following conditions: -

- Whilst every care and effort are made to ensure the health and wellbeing of all the pets in our care, pets are boarded entirely at their owners' risk and upon acceptance of our terms and conditions.
- Where pets remain uncollected by you for a period seven days or more from the agreed collection date, and after we have attempted to contact you using all contact details you supplied us with, with no satisfactory response, we reserve the right, at our absolute discretion, to sell or otherwise dispose of such pet.
- All Boarding Fees are inclusive of our comprehensive insurance (including veterinary fees up to £2,000) for each pet per stay, subject to normal commercial insurance terms and conditions. Any existing illness or condition will not be covered by insurance and it is your obligation to notify us of any such pre-existing condition. You hereby consent, should the need arise, for our insurer's veterinary professional to seek information about your pet's conditions from your vet. Routine vaccinations, worms, fleas and ear mites etc., are not covered. All veterinary costs not covered by our insurance, are the full responsibility of the owner. All vet fees must be paid upon collection of your pet and our insurance will reimburse you should the claim be successful.

"Professional Care For Your Pet"

- Our fees are per day; they are inclusive of VAT at the current rate and are subject to change without notice. The fees applicable to your pet's stay are set out on the Booking Confirmation Form.
- You agree to notify Hest Bank Kennels of any changes to your personal contact details to ensure all records are kept up to date.

Booking & Payment Terms

- Agreements for boarding your pet can be concluded in person at our premises, on the telephone, and online.
- We accept payment by Visa and Mastercard credit and debit cards, and cash.
- Payment can also be made over the telephone.
- All rates are levied for the period from and including the day of arrival to and including the day of departure, unless the pet is removed before NOON on the agreed boarding end date, when no charge will be made for that day. Fees due must be paid before the removal of the pet from the premises.
- If your pet is either a) dropped off after agreed start date in the boarding agreement, or b) collected before the date of collection previously advised in the boarding agreement, we reserve the right to charge for the entire period you originally booked.
- All requested pet products supplied, grooming or additional services i.e., additional dog walks will be added to the final bill and payable in full on collection of your pet.
- Please note that your pet must have (and you must be able to prove) up to date vaccination status. This is essential, and we cannot accept a pet that is non-compliant. Our licence from the Local Authority makes it unlawful for us to accept a pet that is not compliant. If you are in any doubt, contact us, and your vet, well in advance of your pet's stay. If you fail to comply with this requirement, your pet will not be accepted and you will remain liable to pay for the boarding you have booked.

Deposits and Payment Terms

- For one- or two-day boarding bookings payment must be made in full at time of booking.
- All other boarding bookings will only be accepted upon payment of a 50% deposit. You agree that we may retain the deposit in settlement of all or part of any sums that are payable by you under the agreement, whether in the event of cancellation or no-show, or late collection as set out in these terms and conditions or in settlement of any sums accruing due under the boarding agreement.

Hest Bank Kennels

"Professional Care For Your Pet"

- A boarding agreement is not considered as being legally made until both a) full payment, or (where applicable) the 50% deposit has been made, and b) you have indicated agreement to these terms and conditions.

Face to face bookings

Bookings made at our premises are concluded on the date of your visit, once any applicable payment has been made and these terms and conditions are signed. Such bookings may not be cancelled by you.

In the event that you fail to bring your pet on the agreed start day, you will remain liable to pay the agreed daily rate for the period of the booking. Should we, nonetheless, have been able to re-sell some period of the pet accommodation you booked, we will (where it is reasonable for us to do so) make some allowance against the amount you owe, having first deducted any additional administrative costs we incurred as a result of your "no-show".

Should you (without agreeing with us first) bring your pet on a day after the agreed date of your original booking, you will need to request a new booking and, if we agree to a new booking, you will be required to make full payment in advance for that new booking.

Telephone or online bookings

Bookings made by telephone or via our website are concluded when we receive payment (that is, either the 50% deposit or full advance payment as the case may be) due at the time of booking and when you confirm the terms of the booking in our email. You may then cancel that booking in 14 days after the day of the booking. You lose the right to cancel after the expiry of those 14 days.

If your booking requested a start date for your pet's stay that begins during this 14 day period, you may still cancel during the remainder of those 14 days, but you are liable to pay for the days your pet was with us, at the agreed daily rate, notwithstanding the cancellation.

Cancellation, no-show, and other defaults

When pet boarding bookings are accepted, Hest Bank Kennels considers these to be binding legal commitments both for it to provide the service agreed, and for customers to honour and pay for that service. Hest Bank Kennels will therefore cease to market and accept bookings for accommodation that has been booked for those agreed dates. As such, it will not accept subsequent bookings from other customers for those dates and kennel spaces. Where a customer either purports to cancel a booking (except in the limited circumstances where the law allows cancellation of telephone or online bookings, in which case the statutory provisions apply) or fails to turn up on the booked date, or removes a pet before the conclusion of the booked period, or otherwise breaches the agreement, Hest Bank Kennels will likely lose revenue that it legitimately considered to be a contractual commitment.

As such, whilst Hest Bank will try and mitigate its losses by seeking to replace such bookings that are not honoured by customers, and (if it has been able so to do) will make a reasonable allowance for such replacement bookings when seeking to enforce contractual obligations, if it has not been possible to secure a full or partial replacement, then Hest Bank will enforce the contract for the full amount of the booked pet accommodation in the event of a customer default.

Hest Bank Kennels

"Professional Care For Your Pet"

Notwithstanding the above, if a customer makes a request to cancel a booking, Hest Bank may, but shall not be obliged to, in its complete discretion, accept such cancellation and refund the deposit (less reasonable administration costs), issue a credit for the deposit to be used for a future kennel booking, or decline to accept a requested cancellation and seek settlement of the contracted boarding agreement payments.

Drop Off & Collection

- Please ensure you drop off and collect within our stated opening times, we cannot accept or return your pet outside of these times.
- If you cannot collect your pet on the collection date, then you must ensure you or your nominated person contacts us. If possible, we will allow your pet to stay for the extra time at our standard rates (being the rates in force on the collection date, if higher than the rates on the original booking date).
- If a pet is collected late without prior agreement there will be charged for the extra days at the rates in force on the additional days.
- You must ensure your dog is always on a lead whilst you are transferring them to our staff or returning to your vehicle.
